This book is a bridge between her Chocolate series and a new series featuring a dynasty of rose-growers in Southern France. The hero is a big, growly (literally his growls make the heroine stand at attention, so to speak) intense patissier who makes magic out of chocolate, nitrogen, gold dust, and pistachios.

Her father ' s worst enemy... Top chef Gabriel Delange never forgave his old nemesis Pierre Manon for all the other chef had cost him. One stolen rose... And he most certainly couldn ' t stand the sight of his own most famous dessert, the legendary Rose, claimed as Pierre ' s own on the cover of his new cookbook. A beast ' s substitute victim... But even Gabriel could hardly go through with a lawsuit when he learned the older chef had just had a stroke. Especially not when Pierre had one very cute daughter willing to be Gabriel ' s victim instead. A fascinated beauty... As a child, Jolie Manon had seen her family torn apart by her top chef father ' s obsession with his work. As a food writer, she might be fascinated with a chef ' s work, but she knew how to guard her heart. She would never allow another chef into her life. Unless he blackmailed her into it... Welcome to the heat and sun of Provence, where jasmine and roses climb up old colored walls, where fountains play in ancient stone villages, and where even a beast can prove he is a prince at heart... Praise for Laura Florand and her novels " I adored this story...Paris, chocolate, and romance, all in one hilarious package. " —New York Times best-selling author Eloisa James "Sensuous and sumptuous...a mouth-watering tale of slow-burning passion..." — RT Book Reviews Readers will devour this frothy, fun novel.—Booklist

Paris Breathtakingly beautiful, the City of Light seduces the senses, its cobbled streets thrumming with possibility. For American Cade Corey, it's a dream come true, if only she can get one infuriating French chocolatier to sign on the dotted line. . . . Chocolate Melting, yielding yet firm, exotic, its secrets are intimately known to Sylvain Marquis. But turn them over to a brash American waving a fistful of dollars? Jamais. Not unless there's something much more delectable on the table. . . . Stolen Pleasure Whether confections taken from a locked shop or kisses in the dark, is there anything sweeter? Praise for Laura Florand and her novels "Charming and laugh-out-loud funny."--New York Times bestselling author Deborah Smith "Readers will be happy to live vicariously in Laura's French fairytale."—Booklist "Frothy, French confection of a novel."—Publishers Weekly "Both sensual and sweet. . . a story that melts in your mouth!" —USA Today bestselling author Christie Ridgway

The Heart of Paris Welcome to La Maison des Sorcieres. Where the window display is an enchanted forest of sweets, a collection of conical hats delights the eye and the habitu é s nibble chocolate witches from fanciful mismatched china. While in their tiny blue kitchen, Magalie Chaudron and her two aunts stir wishes into bubbling pots of heavenly chocolat chaud. But no amount of wishing will rid them of interloper Philippe Lyonais, who has the gall to open one of his world famous pastry shops right down the street. Philippe's creations seem to hold a magic of their own, drawing crowds of beautiful women to their little isle amidst the Seine, and tempting even Magalie to venture out of her ivory tower and take a chance, a taste. . . . a kiss. Parisian princesses, chocolate witches, p à tissier princes and sweet wishes--an enchanting tale of amour et chocolat. Praise for Laura Florand and her novels "Charming and laugh-out-loud funny." --New York Times bestselling author Deborah Smith "Readers will be happy to live vicariously in Laura's French fairytale." --Booklist "Frothy, French confection of a novel." --Publishers Weekly "Both sensual and sweet. . . a story that melts in your mouth!" --USA Today bestselling author Christie Ridgway "Vive la Laura Florand!" --Cassandra King

Romantic Times acclaims Laura Florand's work as "sensuous and sumptuous", nominating her for Best Book of 2013, and NPR says it's "explosive, sensual . . . and utterly sweet". Now, in her sixth book in the award-winning Amour et Chocolat series, Florand takes us into a top Paris restaurant ' s pastry kitchen and into the hearts and irresistible temptations of its chefs. She hated him. Patrick Chevalier. The charming, laid-back, golden second-in-command of the Paris pastry kitchen where Sarah worked as intern, who made everything she failed at seem so easy, and who could have every woman he winked at falling for him without even trying. She hated him, but she ' d risked too much for this dream to give up on it and walk out just so he wouldn ' t break her heart. But he didn ' t hate her. Sarah Lin. Patrick ' s serious, dark-haired American intern, who looked at him as if she could see right through him and wasn ' t so impressed with what she saw. As her boss, he knew he should leave her alone. The same way he knew better than to risk his heart and gamble on love. But he was never good at not going after what — or who — he wanted. He could make magic out of sugar. But could he mold hate into love? She stole his roses. Fleeing the spotlight, burnt out rock star Layla—" Belle " —Dubois seeks refuge in the south of France. That old, half-forgotten heritage in a valley of roses seems like a good place to soothe a wounded heart. She certainly doesn ' t expect the most dangerous threat to her heart to pounce on her as soon as she sets foot on the land. He wants them back. Matt didn ' t mean to growl at her quite that loudly. But—his roses! She can ' t have his roses. Even if she does have all those curls and green eyes and, and, and...what was he growling about again? Or maybe he just wants her. When an enemy invades his valley and threatens his home, heart, and livelihood, Matthieu Rosier really knows only one way to defend himself. It might involve kissing. And that might be just the start. Praise for Laura Florand ' s novels " A poignant, lovely, moving, authentic story. From international bestselling author Laura Florand: A Michelin two-star chef at twenty-eight, Violette Lenoir could handle anything, including a cocky burglar who broke into her restaurant in the middle of the night. Or so she thought. Elite counterterrorist operative Chase " Smith " had been through things that made Hell Week look easy. But nothing had prepared him for a leather-clad blonde who held him at bay at knifepoint and dared him to take her on. Now if only saving the world didn ' t require he ruin her life. Two people who thought they could handle anything now have to take on each other. It's a battle neither one expected. But with their futures on the line, they have nothing to lose...but their hearts. Warning: This book contains one arrogant Navy SEAL, nights of Paris passion, and a woman who wants to have it all.

A hardened exile It had taken Lucien Rosier fifteen years at war to rebuild himself after he lost his family. To remake himself, he had left behind even his name. Now a captain in the Foreign Legion, the last thing he wanted was to face his past. Even for her... A woman longing for a home Lucien Rosier had been her hero once, when everyone else had turned away. Now it was Elena Lyon's turn to rescue him. If she could teach him to believe in love and family again, she would pay back her debts. But after a lifetime of abandonment, she wasn't about to make the mistake of believing in love herself. Not even for him... Could two broken hearts find in each other exactly what they needed to heal?
