U Boat Buchheim Lothar Gunther

Assignment as a reporter to cover the seventh patrol (October 27 - December 6, 1941) of U-96 was perhaps the defining event in the life of Lothar-Gunther Buchheim (1918-2007). But over 30 years were to elapse before he published, first, a semi-autobiographical novel (The Boat), and then a non-fiction historical trilogy about this experience.

U-boat war: BUCHHEIM, Lothar-Gunther: 9780002118682 ...

As a German naval war correspondent, Lothar-Günther Buchheim was on board U-96 during its seventh patrol (October 27 - December 6, 1941). His 1973 book, The Boat (Das Boot), was based on that experience. He informs readers that The Boat "is a novel but not a work of fiction. The author witnessed all of the events reported in it."

Das Boot by Lothar-Günther Buchheim - Goodreads

Buchheim is one of the few u-boat crewmen who, for example, has many not too kind words for Doentz, the head of the submarine arm of the Kriegsmarine. The photographs though are what really give meaning to the author's narrative, even in mundane activities such as eating, engine maintenance and keeping watch in the surface during both good and bad weather.
